POLICE COURT.
GEO. W. JOHNSTON, Judge.
MONDAY, July 24.
MAKING NEW CITIZENS—The court this morning commenced business by swearing in new citizens of foreign birth who renounce all former alle-and, swear to become one of U. S. Police Cops—SLAVES STEALING A WAGON.—At 11 P. M. on Monday, a wagon, owned by Mr. M. M. Wolbrook, and Bill, slave of Dr. Knight, three young negroes, were presented for stealing a wagon, and a horse, from the residence of Dr. Knight. The horse was stolen about the same time, and these boys were seen together in the wagon with another negro, who was seen to be in the wagon and been whipped, and no proof against the others was left off.

A DISORDERLY CONCERT.—James Flood, a young man, was in arrest and presented on the charge of knocking some one down on Third street last night. He had been drinking, and had some words with Flood, who hit him in the mouth, for which a bond of $200 was required.

A DISORDERLY TRIO.—About midnight, Saturday three young men were out on the street overpowered by a policeman, and taken to the station for their howlings. They had been at a political gathering first, and then to a liquor store, or shop, where they were drinking. The police were desperately angry, as well as the citizens, and the party is already under bonds, but to hold them for the next morning, and to pay for their accused behavior three months.

CHARGE OF STEALING $47.—Joseph Gabrino, who has been under examination Saturday, was again charged with robbing a man on Third street, at Wednesday night. The latter testified that the drawer was robbed, he thinks by accused, the money included in the robbery was $47, and he had a five franc piece, a brick, or plain these pieces were produced in court, and identified as his money. He further testified that according to his habit he had not been carrying any money, and he took him giving him food and lodgings. He left last night, and he did not know where he went for a week. The robbery was effected by the back way, through a hatchway from the cellar, which was reached by means of a ladder, and as soon as the money was misused suspicion fastened upon him. A brother of Gorzillo's testified that he had seen the accused in the city of Chicago, ringing in on him, and insisting upon stopping at the house of his brother who lived in the city of Chicago, but that he had no room or accommodation for him. The accused bears rather a hard character, the witness testified, and is well known in the city of New York since he was in Buffalo. The morning after the robbery, Thursday morning, he was seen in Portland in a very dirty condition, with a very long beard, colored in paper and silver. His hat was covered with cobwebs, and his clothes dirty. Watchman James J. O'Connell, who was on duty at the time the suspicion against accused, and arrested him, took him to the city hall, where he was taken to the city hall mail boat, Friday, finding $47.75 on his person, and he was taken to the city hall, where he was committed when arrested. By papers found in his person he goes by the name of Joseph Londono, and he is a native of Italy, and he is a person having been made out in Europe, or the Americas, regular bazaar documents—watchman, he found him, and he was taken for the occasion. Portland, the money taken from him.

stituted by GoroZZo as that stolen from him, making out as strong a case as could be, and bail was returned for the next morning.

DARKS AND DISORDERLY GORMAN.—The next morning, the charges being made, the disorderly conduct, after midnight Saturday. There had been a sort of family fight among 'em, the parties being the wife and a son, and the wife's mother. The neighborhood was aroused. His old mother brought a stick on the back of the head, which hurt him, and he went out out of the house. He is now in bond, to keep the peace 3 months, in $200 was required.

SUSPECTED FELLOW.—Mathias Norman, rather a thin, light complexioned, young man, was presented on the broad charge of being a suspected felon, and charged with the theft of a watch and work for him, had stolen a watch, and accused was all the time in company of the other in the theft. He was charged with the watch being created. A coat had been stolen from the boarding house where both had stopped, the runaway was charged with the theft of that too. The accused was here discharged.

A FELLOW WARRANT.—Jas. O. Spencer was introduced on the charge of being a suspected felon, informing, who charges him with fraudulently obtaining an order from Joseph Combs for $60—his witnesses were not present, and we left the case.

WOMAN ASSAULTING ANOTHER.—Mrs. Maguire was presented on the charge of committing an assault on Bridget Gibbons, who was assaulting her own room over head, when Mrs.

either unaltered her, and she says she saw the other three threatened her. Something was said about the water leaking through the floor to the kitchen and about the water being poured out, and the Gibbons fetching the first kick by kicking her. The case was dismissed. — John Ford, blue-shirt boy, was presented for innocent exposure of his person on the street. A witness, who stated that he saw the fellow, says he was on the alley, though others said he only went fifteen feet. The order was to let him be fined twenty dollars.

General Items.

☞ The Memphis Avalanche says it is not true that ex-Governor Foote is seriously ill at that city.

☞ ISLAND MORTALITY. — During the last week, of the month, 275 negroes died under one year old, in this startling record.

☞ The Presbytery of Transylvania, Ky., have adopted, unanimously, a report from the pen of Dr. Robert H. Bell, declaring the invalidity of amputee baptism.

☞ McHenry who was lately tried on the supposition of being the notorious forger, was found guilty and sentenced to the penitentiary, Ga. Strange to say, the fair one was a sweetest, one, of the variable murderer, Townsend.

☞ The people of New Orleans, from New Orleans, as well as the press of that city, report that the health, naturally good. Some few cases of cholera have been reported, but they were by no means of a malignant character.

279 A man named Crabtree was shot in Ash and Ky., last Sunday night, while sneaking in to see a woman who had been taken there. He was lodged in his back, wounding him severely, not dangerously.

280 LILLIAN. A rich man named White, at Colfax, Lincoln County, Va., was shot and killed on the 11th inst., by a doggerly keeper named Duques. White had headed a company of men against the Indians in the Duques region, and was destroying the liquor when he was killed.

281 CECILIO TO DEWAS.—S. S. West, of Palmyra, Pa., has been shot and killed by a quarrelsome Wisconsin, directed head foremost from a pier, striking his bottom with such force as to cause paralysis of the lower limbs. The wound was recovered by the pine. He died in a few days.

282 The descendants of Governor Hutchinson and Lieutenant-Governor Oliver, of England, are now in the hands of the Government. A large amount of real estate in Boston, which they hold in pledge to them under the eighth article of the treaty of 1763, has been sold to the Government for a number of nice questions of public and real property law.

283 JAMES STEVENSON, a painter by trade, and his wife, were under arrest in Trumbull county, Ohio, for attempting to poison a widow lady named Gibson, residing in Farmington, and mother-in-law of the late Governor. The woman was taken through molasses, having been put in a jug containing the article.

[illegible]

PEARL MORTALITY.—Died, in Abingdon county, Va., of diarrhoea, on the 23d ult., Susan E. aged 7 years, on the 26th, Campbell J., aged 13; on the 28th, Lydia E., aged 5, and Lewis J., aged 13; on the 29th, Sallie J., aged 4. The children of Gasper Fleener. On the 19th ult., Mrs. Mary Fleener died at an advanced age, on the 6th instant, Mr. Henry Fleener, aged about 70 years, on the 30th, William L., son of Joel Fleener, aged 4 years.

OUTRAGE BY THE BANDITS.—We learn from Cass county, Missouri, that the Montgomery bandits of the Missouri river have been making forays on the border counties of this State. One day last week five or six of them came into Bates county, proceeded to Young's, and killed the postman, and then to the post office. They conveyed him several miles on the road with them, and shot and stabbed him. He was found the next day and borne home. St. Louis Eve. News.

THAT BEAR STORY.

"I was determined to find out what it was that played smash with my corn every night. The field was close by the woods, so I climbed a tree overlooking that portion of the field; about midnight I heard a rustling among the corn, and on closer examination I found it to be a number'n' big Bear. Curiosity tempted me to watch and see what the old varmint would do; well, sir, he just kept on smashing down and munching 'till I thought his confounded old skin would burst; he then gathered his arms full of the biggest ears and walked off into the woods; I got down and followed him for two miles into the woods, when, what do you think I found? Why, sir, the cussed old bruta had built a pen and got four of my best boys in it, fattening them on his own hook. Now, sir, if you don't believe it, you can
